

The Devil Wears Blue, apparently

The Duke Blue Devils come into Coral Gables as the #11 team in the country, but they definitely have not played up to that ranking recently. For the first time in over 10 years, Duke has started off with an 0-2 ACC record, losing games at home to Virginia Tech and on the road to the same Georgia Tech team that Miami beat back in December.

J.J. Redick may be gone to the pros, but there's still plenty of Dukies to heckle.

Duke, a traditional college hoops power, has suffered a bit from attrition this year, losing their two stars from last year to the NBA - PF Sheldon Williams and SG J.J. Redick. Nevertheless, Duke always reloads, and they return a tough but very young team this year. Led by sophomore PG Greg Paulus, junior SG DeMarcus Nelson, and sophomore C Josh McRoberts, the Blue Devils were expected to finish at the top of the ACC, just behind North Carolina.

Duke is always one of the most hated teams in college basketball. Maryland fans took hatred to a whole new level with J.J. Redick, cursing at him and even prank calling his cell number hundreds of times in one night. Coach K, while respected for his coaching record and considerable success, is also a main target of heckling, largely due to his ferret-like appearance, difficult-to-spell name, and his arrogance and working of the referees out on the court.

Beating Duke is always a difficult task due to the talent-level of the Blue Devils. Duke also usually gets a boost from the refs, even on the road, so be sure to get on their case about EVERYTHING tonight. The Canes match up well with Duke and have a great chance to pull off the upset tonight, beating a nearly top-10 ranked team in front of a national TV audience.

Make the arena loud, rowdy, and rockin' tonight, and help our guys pull out the win. Go Canes!

After that Deron Washington layup where he jumped OVER Greg Paulus last week, Duke debuted a new line of merchandise.

SEBASTIAN'S CORNER

When senior forward Keaton Copeland started the season, he never in his wildest dreams believed he would find himself in the starting lineup. And yet, in the heart of ACC play, in the toughest games on our schedule, that's exactly where the walk-on finds himself.

Copeland entered the season having only played in 7 career games, but his tireless work ethic, his excellent rebounding and defensive skill, and his knowledge of the game have helped him to reach this point. Despite being undersized at 6'5", he plays the power forward position and routinely battles against opponents 3-5 inches taller than him. He captained his high school basketball team (Flanagan High in Broward, for all you locals) to a conference championship, and also played two years on the football team. He decided to walk onto the Canes hoops team after Coach Haith opened the team up to walk-ons.

Copeland has already earned his Bachelor's Degree in Engineering and is currently working on a 2nd degree in Mathematics. Keaton's favorites are heavily South Florida-influenced. His favorite sports team (other than the Canes, of course) is the Miami Dolphins. Keaton's favorite musical artist is Miami's own Trick Daddy. His favorite movie, just like Brian Asbury, Jack McClinton, and Jonathan Stratton, is Bad Boys 2, which was filmed in Miami.

Cheering 101

Don't be silent when the Canes are hoopin' it up! Make the Bank-United Center an imposing place to play with cheers like these:

OFFENSE:

- "Let's Go Canes!" with claps on each word.
- "Goooo Miami Go!" with 3 claps afterwards.
- "Let's Go UM!" with 5 claps after.

DEFENSE:

- "Ohhhhh!" while jumping up and down for the entire possession.

FREE THROWS:

- Hold one finger in the air for a Canes FT; if it's made, go "Whoosh! Ohhh!" and then jump and stomp. Stomp twice if he makes both FTs.

ENEMY PLAYER INTROS:

- Turn around, with your back to the court, and hold up the "U."
